

Position: Arthrex Distal Extremity Specialist

Job Description: The Distal Extremity Specialist will be responsible for all aspects of sales in the territory for the Arthrex Small Joint family of products including but not limited to forefoot, midfoot, and hindfoot procedures, ankle fracture, soft tissue tendon fixation, hand, wrist and elbow procedures. There will also be a biologic line of autograft and allograft products to market.

The position requires the ability to assimilate and learn a high level of technical information, anatomy and indications as it relates to surgery and procedures. Sales Consultant will spend the majority of time in surgery interacting with both staff and surgeons. Must have good time management skills and ability to manage personal surgical equipment and inventory.

Required Skills: B.S Degree or equivalent mandatory 2 years experience in Medical Sales (Orthopedic experience will be given more consideration)
Background in sports, sports medicine or competition preferred
Great communication skills and time management experience
Ability to maintain inventory of consigned products Knowledge and background of Human Anatomy
Competent in basic windows based operating system (MS Word, Powerpoint, Excel , Email, etc.)

Position Type: Full Time, typically more than 40 hours per week and will include some weekend call. Relocations will not be considered

Job Locations:

Alaska: Anchorage

California: Fresno

Washington: Vancouver and Everett

Oregon: Salem / Bend and Portland

Please submit your resume to: jobs@pacmedical.com