

Rehab Associate

Pacific Medical, Inc was established in 1986 and is a leading distributor for durable medical equipment and surgical instruments servicing the seven western states. We provide our services directly to the patient, medical networks, physician clinics and offices. We are dedicated to the advancement of patient care through excellent service and product technology.

We have an immediate opportunity to join our fast growing orthopedic sports medicine company. We are currently seeking an entry level Rehab Associate the Territories listed below. This individual would be responsible for delivery, application and maintenance of orthopedic products. Will work with patients by setting up and measuring the patient for the proper durable medical equipment such as knee and shoulder braces, CPM units and cold therapy. Must be a hard working and detail-oriented person. The applicant will submit to a detailed background check. This is an excellent entry-level opportunity for the right candidate

Job Location:

Washington: Olympia and Seattle

Relocations will not be considered

Please submit your resume to: jobs@pacmedical.com